David Grossbaum concentrates his practice in the areas of professional liability defense and insurance coverage. He represents lawyers, real estate agents, insurance professionals, accountants, and securities brokers/registered representatives in liability cases.

In his insurance coverage practice, David has successfully litigated a wide variety of coverage and bad faith disputes.

David joined Hinshaw in 2005 to open the firm's Boston and Providence offices. He is a past leader of the firm's Insurance Services Practice Group and a past member of Hinshaw's Executive Committee.

Upon graduation from law school, he clerked with the Superior Court for the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. He was subsequently appointed as an Assistant District Attorney for Essex County, Massachusetts, where he argued cases in the Supreme Judicial Court and the Appeals Court of Massachusetts and tried jury cases. He also taught legal research and writing at Boston University Law School.
