Olivia Paxinos defends all aspects of litigation claims involving commercial litigation, construction, premises liability, product liability, general liability, and transportation. She counsels her clients and develops litigation strategies that integrate with their business operations.

Olivia's clients range from small, privately-held entities to Fortune 500 companies, several of which she represents on a regional or national basis. Olivia not only helps clients navigate and understand the matter at hand, but provides them with personalized and tailored solutions for whatever legal issues they may be facing.

Prior to joining Hinshaw, Olivia practiced law at a civil defense firm. She has also served as an extern in the United States District Court of the Northern District of Illinois and the Chancery Division of the Circuit Court of Cook County.
