Sabrina Janeiro counsels clients on commercial transactions, focusing on matters involving real estate, asset sales, and loans. She drafts and negotiates various transaction documents, including but not limited to real estate purchase and sale agreements, asset purchase agreements, and loan sale agreements. She also assists clients with entity formation and the preparation of corporate documents.

During law school, Sabrina was heavily involved with on-campus organizations. Specifically, she served as vice president of the Cuban American Bar Association and vice president of alum relations for the Charles C. Papy, Jr. Moot Court Board.
