Stephanie Rivera handles all phases of the litigation from inception to trial. She has significant experience handling insurance defense cases involving personal injury, premises liability, commercial litigation, insurance coverage, trucking accident defense, and general liability issues. She defends lawsuits in state and federal courts throughout Florida and Michigan, and represents both individuals and large corporations. She is committed to safeguarding and advancing the interests of her clients.

Prior to joining the firm, Stephanie represented both plaintiffs and defendants in various civil matters. Stephanie's ability to review legal issues from both sides leads to favorable and equitable resolutions for her clients.
