Tim Odzer is a litigator who represents clients in business and insurance coverage disputes. He practices in both state and federal courts in Florida and assists clients throughout all phases of dispute resolution. His experience includes defending clients against claims involving breach of contract and breach of express and implied warranties and obtaining favorable declaratory judgments from courts.

Before joining Hinshaw, Tim served as a federal law clerk to the Honorable Karen Hayes of the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Louisiana and the Honorable Sheri Polster Chappell of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida.

While attending the University of Chicago Law School, Tim participated in the University's Corporate Lab Clinic where he performed corporate and transactional work for Fortune 200 and start-up companies. Tim also interned for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the North Carolina Department of Justice.

Personal

Tim is a Midwest native who moved to South Florida to enjoy year-round sunshine. Outside of work, he enjoys following baseball, traveling, and spending time with his rescue dog, Paco.
