

Construction

The construction services attorneys at Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP have the insight and experience to effectively identify, evaluate and repair troubled construction projects. Our insurance industry experience uniquely positions us to understand the complexities of the relationships that drive today's construction projects. We know how to leverage this industry knowledge into positive results for our clients.

Hinshaw has a long history of protecting the interests of owners, contractors and subcontractors in all types of construction matters, ranging from residential to large-scale commercial and government projects. With dozens of experienced attorneys across our national platform, Hinshaw's Construction Services Team is ready to get your projects back on course and address any claims through negotiation and, if necessary, litigation.

Construction Services

Hinshaw's attorneys regularly handle all legal aspects of construction services, including:

- Bid protests and award disputes
- Prosecuting and defending contract claims, including changes, differing site conditions, inefficiency, and delay
- Prosecuting and defending surety bond claims
- Warrantly claims
- Employee and third-party personal injury claims
- Bankruptcy proceedings
- Mechanic's lien claims
- OSHA construction claims
- Project planning and financing
- Contract drafting and administration
- Alternative dispute resolution
- Insurance coverage and claims disputes
